NEWS RELEASE

April 2, 2009 – Resource Hunter Capital Corp. (the “Company”) (TSX-V: RHC.P) announces that at its annual general meeting held on April 2, 2009 (the “AGM”), the shareholders re-elected Henry Yong and John Nelson to the Board of Directors and elected Carson Phillips as a new director.

The Company is also pleased to announce the appointment of Carson Phillips as the Company’s new President, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Phillips was appointed at a meeting of the Board of Directors held immediately following the AGM.

In addition to his Company appointments, Mr. Phillips is presently involved as Manager Corporate Development at Raytec Metals Corp. (TSX-V: RAY). Previously, Mr. Phillips acted as the Company’s Director of Business Development (December 2007 to April 2009), and held the position of Project Coordinator responsible for finding, reviewing, procuring and managing mining properties for Candorado Operating Company Ltd. (TSX-V: CDO), a TSX Venture Exchange-listed resources company (February 2006 to June, 2008). He has management experience both domestically and internationally having a tenure with the International Chamber of Commerce in 2004 located in Paris, France. Mr. Phillips has a degree in Business Administration from the Okanagan University College as well as a degree in International Business from the Netherlands. The Company is excited to more fully involve Carson in management to accelerate our efforts in finding and evaluating a suitably attractive Qualifying Transaction.
